Attach a typed one–page summary detailing the proposed honors academic activity that you and your instructor have designed for your honors’ contract. You should address each of the following:

- What is the ultimate learning goal of this project?
- What is the current working thesis/argument focus?
- What methods will you use to complete your honors activity?
- What will be the evidence of completion for the project?
- What is the timeline for the project — what are the stages and how often will you and your instructor meet?

Honors contracts are an arrangement between you and your instructor. Please read the statements below and add your signature before submitting this application.

My instructor has read my summary of the proposed project.

My instructor agrees to this Honors contract.
